

Evelien Touriany

Birth date: 19 August 1982

Current Position:

- Nurse, Wound Management Coordinator, Queen Astrid Military Hospital, Brussels, Belgium
- Vice-President, Wondzorg.net (CNC) vzw Wound Management Association, Belgium

Work experience:

@ Queen Astrid Military Hospital, Brussels, Belgium

2004-2007: Nurse, Burn Centre, Medium care

Since 2006: clinical research nurse

Since 2007: Head Nurse, Center for Complex Wounds

Since 2012: Wound Management Coordinator Queen Astrid Military Hospital

@ CNPV (Center for continuous education)

Since 2008: guest lecturer in wound care and tissue repair (several topics) for e.g. the postgraduate course in woundcare, ostomy care and tissue repair (60 ECT)

Academic education:

2000-2004: Hogeschool Gent. Bachelor in Nursing

2004-2005: Ghent University. Master in nursing and midwifery – transition program (60ECTS)

2006: Oxford Wound Healing Summer School

2006-2008: Katholieke Hogeschool Roeselare. Postgraduate course wound care, ostomy care & tissue repair (60ECTS)

Memberships:

Member of CNC vzw wound management association since 2007

- Manager of different working groups
- 2016: Vice-president

Member of EWMA

- Council Member :
 - o May 2017 – 2020 (elected by individual members)
 - o May 2020 – 2023 (re-elected by individual members)
- Member of Education Committee
- Member of Patient Liaison Group
- Collaborator: War Wounds project & Rehabilitation project

Publications:

- Gethin G, Touriany E, van Netten JJ, Sobotka L, Probst S; The impact of patient health and lifestyle factors on wound healing, Part 1: Stress, sleep, smoking, alcohol, common medications and illicit drug use; J Wound Management, 2022;23(1 Suppl 1, pt 1):S1-41; DOI: 10.35279/jowm2022.23.01.sup01.01
- Gethin G, van Netten JJ, Probst S, Touriany E, Sobotka L; The impact of patient health and lifestyle factors on wound healing, Part 2: Physical activity and nutrition; J Wound Management, 2022;23(1 Suppl 1, pt 2):S1-24; DOI: 10.35279/jowm2022.23.01.sup01.02